

India's first Complex fertilizer plant in private sector commissioned at Visakhapatnam under the Green Revolution

Incorporation of Coromandel Fertilisers by EID Parry Ltd and two major US companies Chevron Phillips and IMC

From the White House

First in India to install a sulphuric acid plant at Visakhapatnam based on DCDA technology

Recycling of seawater for the effluent recirculation system in the phosphoric acid plant at Visakhapatnam, a first in India

First in India and second in Asia to install a submarine pipeline for unloading ammonia directly from ships, Ennore plant.

First in India to have molten sulphur handling facility at Visakhapatnam.

Merger of farm inputs business of EID Parry with Coromandel

Invested in Godavari Fertilisers and Chemicals Ltd; becoming 2nd largest phosphatic fertiliser player in the country

Strategic investment in Foskor, South Africa for sourcing phosphoric acid, sweat equity of 14% in the company

Innovation in rural retail marketing - company's retail foray in Andhra

Indo Tunisian joint venture for phosphoric acid with (15%) equity from Coromandel along with another Indian Company - GSFC (15%)

Pesticides business expands – acquisition of FICOM Organics; expanded Agrochemical footprint

